

These companies represent just a few of those that have embraced the organic living movement with products that speak to the ever-growing green community.

1. 21 Drops, 21 blends (it's no coincidence). Pursuing a healthier way of living, essential oils are a pillar in surviving the modern world. Offering blends from Invigorate to Detox and Transform, 21 Drops has created variations to suit the needs of every clean lifestyle. Circle 277.

2. Rose Toner from Anointment is a vegan product that contains witch hazel, rose hydrosol and plant extracts to cleanse and tone skin. Its Baby Oil is great for baby, pregnant bellies, and as a makeup remover. Circle 278.

3. Darci Towns provides quality décor pieces that are rooted in eco-friendly and sustainable materials and processes. Circle 279.

4. Part of the Birdbath Series, Lavender Soap from Garden Voyage is made using certified sustainable palm oil and shea nut butter. Circle 280.

5. With brushes made of sustainable bamboo and recycled bristles, glass cleaner made from cellulose, bamboo, recycled plastic and towels made from non-toxic dye and organic cotton, Full Circle Home's Kitchen Innovations 2.0 collection is earth friendly. Circle 281.

6. Working with a scent palette of nearly 200 all natural, plant and flower extracts and oils, Acorelle's artisan perfumers create fresh, modern organic perfumes. Circle 282.

7. Swipe was designed to offer a convenient product for travelers to replace deodorant sticks. Manufactured in the United States, Swipe products are made by a company that practices the use of solar energy. Circle 283.

8. The group at Swell Vision is on a mission to pioneer the next wave of sustainable fashion. Every unsinkable pair of sunglasses is made of bamboo and gives back to non-profit partners at Green School Bali. Circle 284.

9. At Good Earth Soap, every lotion bar is made of organic herbs, is biodegradable, and will leave skin feeling moisturized and soft. Circle 285.

THE MODERN RETAILER'S ESSENTIAL RESOURCE

Gift Shop

SPRING 2016

FOR THE Love
of Stationery

FASHION & ACCESSORIES
ORGANIC LIFESTYLE
COLOR OUTLOOK